

INDIAN HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL

(CIN NO: U85100PN2014NPL152462, Section 8 Licence Number: 104415)

1, VISHWAKAMAL COMPLEX, GP-65, MIDC 'G' BLOCK,

THERMAX CHOWK, CHINCHWAD PUNE 411019 MAHARASHTRA (INDIA)

e-mail: avinash.ihr@vishwamanavaadhikar.org

web: www.vishwamanavaadhikar.org

cell: +91-9922099999

॥अहर्वाधिकारः॥

PRESS NOTE

WESTERN COUNTRIES NEEDED NOT TEACH INDIA

LESSONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS

INDIAN CULTURE IS 25000 YEARS OLD

Pravin Dixit.

World Human Rights Day celebrated in Pune

“India has a great legacy to present before the world for the protection of human rights. India does not need advice from the so-called global organizations for the protection of human rights, retired Director General of Police and member of National Human Rights Commission Mr. Praveen Dixit IPS said in a program organized at the Svatantrya Veer Savarkar Adhyasan Center on the occasion of the World Human Rights Day. Speaking further in his speech, Mr. Praveen Dixit reviewed many projects of human rights movement, mentioned the challenges of the new generation and praised India's performance in the role of defender of human rights.

INDIAN HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL

(CIN NO: U85100PN2014NPL152462, Section 8 Licence Number: 104415)

1, VISHWAKAMAL COMPLEX, GP-65, MIDC 'G' BLOCK,
THERMAX CHOWK, CHINCHWAD PUNE 411019 MAHARASHTRA (INDIA)
e-mail: avinash.ihr@vishwamanavaadhikar.org
web: www.vishwamanavaadhikar.org
cell: +91-9922099999

He expressed the hope that India can make a great contribution in the field of human rights. December 10 is celebrated as World Human Rights Day all over the world. Pune-based Indian Human Rights Council organized a program in that regard. The Director of the Council Mr. Chintan Mokashi asserted that 5000 years of Indian culture teaches the world a great lesson in defending human rights. Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, who respectfully dispatched the daughter-in-law of the subhedar of Kalyan, Arjun standing in the middle of the Kaurav Pandav army on the battlefield in Kurukshetra asserted begged Shri Krishna that I would not do this heinous act killing millions is the epitome of human rights defender.

Shri Avinash Mokashi, the founder of the Indian Human Rights Council, a retired police officer, while mentioning his experience as a representative of the International Police Task Force in Bosnia, expressed the need to bring the issue of human rights to the general public. Mr. Ashish Sonawane

INDIAN HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL

(CIN NO: U85100PN2014NPL152462, Section 8 Licence Number: 104415)
1, VISHWAKAMAL COMPLEX, GP-65, MIDC 'G' BLOCK,
THERMAX CHOWK, CHINCHWAD PUNE 411019 MAHARASHTRA (INDIA)
e-mail: avinash.ihr@vishwamanavaadhikar.org
web: www.vishwamanavaadhikar.org
cell: +91-9922099999

॥अहर्वाधिकारः॥

reviewed the activities of the organization and laid out many plans.

Page | 3

The Human Rights Council of India is working to inculcate this concept of global importance in the Indian society in many ways such as educating the society about human rights, encouraging them, intervening at appropriate places. This program of the organization is getting good response from the society.

The event was attended by 150 citizens. It was decided to spread the activities of IHRC throughout India.

Avinash Mokashi
Director
Indian Human Rights Council

***

॥अहर्षाधिकारः॥

INDIAN HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL

(CIN NO: U85100PN2014NPL152462, Section 8 Licence Number: 104415)

1, VISHWAKAMAL COMPLEX, GP-65, MIDC 'G' BLOCK,
THERMAX CHOWK, CHINCHWAD PUNE 411019 MAHARASHTRA (INDIA)
e-mail: avinash.ihr@vishwamanavaadhikar.org
web: www.vishwamanavaadhikar.org
cell: +91-9922099999

